Aer seeing the poster on Khazar University admissions, I decided to pursue my master’s degree in this university. Aer starting my studies here, I fell in love with Khazar and Azerbaijan. MS candidate (Petroleum Engineering) BA candidate (International Relations)

Searching for options to study abroad, I applied to several universities to study. Khazar University was distinguished among all universities I applied with the transparency of its selection process and highly responsiveness of the admissions staff. Now I'm in the third year of my studies at Khazar and I have had a chance to travel through Azerbaijan to explore the nature and cuisine of this unique country. Choosing Khazar and coming to Azerbaijan is definitely one of the best choices I have ever made!
